Gov. Bradley Quite Sick.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 17.—Gov. Bradley is still quite sick this morning. His friends and physicians still insist that the Executive is only suffering from a bilious attack, and he will be all right in a few days, but there are others who believe he is a very sick man, and that it will be an indefinite period before he is back in his office.

Equalization Board.

Judge Breathitt has appointed the County Equalization Board for this year's assessment. The members are B. F. Johnson, M. B. Brown, F. J. Garrett, Isaac Garrett, R. J. Carothers, J. W. Pritchett and Peter Postell, Jr., colored. The board is an excellent one, representing all parts of the county and all classes of property holders. It will meet the first Monday in January.

Will Bet On The Mayor.

While candidate Franks and several others are being tipped for the collectorship of this district, yet the Hustler is willing to bet just a little that Maj. S. R. Crum, of Hopkinsville, will be the man. He is the original McKinley man of the district, has been in close touch with the President-elect for several years and at one time he held the place that several men want. Maj. Crum wants the place and we suppose it will go to him.—Hustler.

Summoned Without Warning.

Daniel Wright, an old colored man 80 years of age, dropped dead of heart disease, Wednesday afternoon, while wheeling kindling in a wheelbarrow on Main street. He was coming from J. W. Boyd's, on Seventh street, to his home on Fifth street in the rear of the Old Bank building. Near the crossing on Main and Fifth he suddenly fell and expired instantaneously. Coroner Allenworth was summoned and held an inquest. The verdict was heart disease.

Wants Damages for an Arm.

Engene Carr, a Clarksville negro who was beating his way from Belleville, Ill., about a week ago, had his arm crushed by an L. & N. freight train in this city and amputation was necessary. Carr was riding on the "truck road" under a car and a brakeman who detected him as the train was approaching the tank ordered him off. In getting off the negro fell under the wheels and his shoulder and arm were crushed. He was taken in the caboose to Pembroke and Dr. R. D. Moore amputated the arm at the shoulder. Carr is not recovering and threatens to bring a damage suit against the railroad company. The operation of Dr. Moore was a fine piece of work and did great credit to his skill and learning as a surgeon.

An Epidemic of Vagrants.

Hopkinsville is just now a Mecca for the hordes of vagrants who are walking the highways of Christian county. The unusually large number of idle men in the city, who do not belong here, is a serious menace to the welfare of the people of Hopkinsville. Many floaters who were brought here by the Republicans for campaign purposes are still hanging around the city and their number is being daily increased by swarms of country negroes coming to town to spend the winter. There has been a disposition to pass the Council in the past and a liberal appropriation of fuel for the poor, white and black, but the city fathers are now being urged to take care of the public charity at public expense very different aspect. The five Democratic council and the Democratic City Council to the tax payers public charity to see that the line of duty is not drawn at the real army of the city and not made to include run out of the city who ought to be of these idle men. There are scores of prospects of men who have no hope or ready well to work in a city all kinds and the Council laborers that they are not they can show work the vagrancy live without once be enforced. It should be made that each suggestion we trust the authorities and also to act. Idle men will not and there is no reason why crime should be encouraged. Idleness harbored at public expense.

Miss Cornelia Hester, of Clarksville, has been appointed a notary at this place.

JUDGE LANDES.

A Frankfort Paper Pays Him a High Compliment.

One of the subjects of sincere regret to the people of Kentucky, is the fact that this sterling, upright and honest jurist was not elected to fill out the rest of the term of Judge Grace. When that eminent man was called to the other world so suddenly last spring Gov. Bradley honored himself and the State by appointing Judge Landes to hold the position until the time at which the law required an election to be held. He has filled the position to the very highest requirement of law and justice, and has made a record of which any man might be proud. He has stood manfully to his position and has rendered opinions that are models for clearness, precision and justice. Many hoped that he would continue upon the bench, while they knew the majority of him politically was very large. But he went down in defeat, with his flag flying and unstained by any act beneath the dignity of an upright judge.

The good people of this city especially regret his defeat, as they had earned to know and honor him as a pure, just and an earnest Christian gentleman.—Roundabout.

From Pee Dee.

Pee Dee, Nov. 18.—The protracted meeting at Little River church continues with increasing interest. Large crowds attend every service and fine sermons are being preached by Rev. E. E. Berryman who is assisting the pastor, Rev. A. W. Meacham.

Mr. W. A. Sowell, of Trigg county, and Miss Katie Smith, daughter of Mr. Archie Smith, were married at the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Bennettsville yesterday evening at 3 o'clock by Rev. Crump, the pastor. They were given a reception at the groom's home and are now on a bridal tour in the Purchase, visiting relatives.

Another wedding will take place at Little River church on the 25th inst. at 3 p. m. Mr. Jas. M. Miles, son of Mr. A. W. Miles, and Miss Mattie Carlow, youngest daughter of Mr. Jas. W. Carlow, will be joined in wedlock by Rev. A. W. Meacham. A reception will follow at the residence of the groom's father near Bennettsville.

The matrimonial ball will be kept rolling by still another wedding next month in the Howell neighborhood, the principals in this case being Miss Ida Dixon and Mr. George Buchanan.

"And still there are more to follow."

E. W. PETTUS.

Democratic Caucus Selects Gen. Pettus for Senate.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 16.—The Legislature held a caucus to-night on the Senatorial question. But two names were before them and the first ballot resulted in Gen. E. W. Pettus, of Selma, 67; Gov. W. C. Oates, 26. Gen. Pettus, the successful candidate, was born in this state in 1821, went into the army as a Major of the Twentieth Alabama and was promoted to Colonel. He was captured at Vicksburg, but was soon exchanged and appointed Brigadier General. Both Alabama Senators will be from the same town—Selma.

A Sixteen to One Camp Attacked.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 17.—Last night near Calvert City, Marshall county, a band of armed citizens attacked a slave camp in which there were sixteen colored men and ran them away. Four of the negroes were shot but none were seriously hurt. The negroes all lived in this city and came here, a distance of fifteen miles, on foot. Negro labor has not been allowed in that section of Marshall county for the past three years, and the gang attacked last night had been warned to leave. The negroes were employed by the Standard Oil Company to get out slave timber.

Dixon Monday Night.

Of Lecturer Thos. Dixon, who will be at the Tabernacle Monday night next, the Atlanta Constitution says: "It is almost impossible to reproduce Mr. Dixon in print. His manner as well as his subject is unique. The lecture was peculiarly bright and sparkling. It was full of anecdotes imitating told, and excited continual bursts of laughter and applause. The audience left the opera house enthusiastic and delighted." Seats on sale at Elgin's, at 35 cts.

Gold Mine Under Cairo.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 17.—An artesian well now being bored in Cairo at a depth of 750 feet is passing through quartz that a careful assay by experts shows rich with both gold and silver. A well probably will be sunk immediately in the place of the well, by Col. Halliday, the owner.

Gen. Eli H. Murray, of San Diego, Cal., formerly Governor of Utah, died at Bowling Green Wednesday. He came to Kentucky three weeks ago to die in his native state. He was 57 years old.

CLEVELAND IN JAIL.

AN INSURANCE MAN IN SERIOUS TROUBLE.

A Resident Agent of the Penn Mutual Arrested on a Charge of Embezzlement.

George Cleveland, who has been for several years located here as agent of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., is in serious trouble with his company. In fact Mr. Cleveland is in jail in default of a heavy bond and is awaiting trial on the charge of embezzlement. The warrant for his arrest was issued by County Judge Breathitt and he was brought to the city Tuesday night by detective Charles Ridley, who arrested him in New Orleans. The charges of embezzlement are somewhat general as yet. It is a little hard to get at the particulars in advance of the trial.

The first intimation that there was anything wrong was a legal notice inserted in about a month ago stating that Mr. Cleveland was no longer an agent of the Penn Mutual. He had been absent from the city for some weeks and his friends did not know what had become of him.

About a week ago rumors of his trouble reached the city and there were those of the insurance and incarceration as above stated.

Mr. Cleveland is about forty years of age and unmarried. He is a man of good appearance and had the reputation of being an excellent insurance man. His company was a good one and he did a large business for it, traveling a good deal in the country.

He came here a stranger about three years ago and but little is known of his antecedents.

Mr. Cleveland's defense will be that his business connection was not with the Insurance company, but with J. W. Iredell, the Kentucky agent, as an individual. The punishment for embezzling the funds of a corporation is from one to ten years in the penitentiary. When the funds are those of an individual the offense is "breach of trust" and not covered by the statute.

We understand that Mr. Cleveland says he does not know exactly how his accounts stand with the company or Mr. Iredell, but that he is ready for a settlement.

If it turns out that he is short he is ready to make it good. He vigorously denies that he is guilty of embezzlement.

The insurance people are not liable to lose anything, as Mr. Cleveland was required to give bond, his bondsman being an Indiana Guaranty Company.

An Exciting Runaway.

Wednesday evening a team belonging to the Crescent Milling Company became frightened and ran off. "They came down Seventh street at a forty gait," and just as they crossed Main street they collided with a loaded wagon belonging to Mr. Jas. Underwood of Paducah. This did not stop the horses and when the corner of Weber street was reached they ran against another team and wagon. This time they fell and before they could get to their feet they were seized and gotten under control. Mr. Underwood was pretty badly hurt and his wagon was wrecked. No other damage was done.

Damage by the Hessian Fly.

The report comes from South Christian that the pest known as the Hessian fly has made its appearance on several farms and much damage has already been done to the wheat crop. In some places the September seedling has been almost entirely destroyed and fears are entertained that the whole crop will suffer.

Mrs. Brasher Dead.

Crofton, Nov. 19.—Mrs. M. C. Brasher died here Tuesday night of cancer of the stomach, aged 57 years. She had been a member of the Christian church since she was fourteen years old and her funeral was preached by Elder T. D. Moore, of Hopkinsville, Wednesday, the interment taking place in the Campbell burying ground, six miles north of this place.

New Road to be Established.

A new public road will shortly be opened from a point on the Clarksville pike, near Mr. J. J. Vandever's to the Palmyra road, near Mr. M. Adams. Messrs. R. F. Rives, J. F. Garnett and W. S. Moore are the commissioners appointed as viewers of the route of the proposed road.

Death at Trenton.

Trenton, Nov. 17.—Mr. Frank Hunter, a highly respected citizen of this place, died last night of stomach trouble, after a long illness. Deceased was about 50 years old and leaves a wife and two children.

Capt John C. Dabney, of Cadiz, was in the city yesterday on business.

TOM UNDERWOOD WEDS.

The Bright Young Fancil Shower Wins a Wife.

Mr. Thomas C. Underwood and Miss Fannie Rust stole a march on their friends Wednesday by driving over to Clarksville in a buggy and getting married.

They have been sweethearts for some time and their marriage was not unexpected, but the surprise was in its suddenness. The secret was well kept and none but their most intimate friends knew of the wedding until it was over. Mr. Underwood and Miss Rust left for Clarksville in a vehicle about 1 o'clock. They were accompanied by Mr. A. B. Anderson and Miss Willie Rust. The trip was made in a few hours and when they reached Clarksville the bride's brother, Rev. John O. Rust, who is holding a meeting in that city, performed the ceremony that made them one. They returned home the same evening and will live with the bride's mother on South Main street.

Mr. Underwood is the city editor of the New Era and is a young man of unusual brightness and decided journalistic talent. His bride is the second daughter of Mrs. M. G. Rust and is a young lady whose intelligence, lovely character and amiability make her a general favorite in social circles. She is accomplished, vivacious and popular with a wide circle of friends and admirers. The KENTUCKIAN congratulates the groom on his good fortune and wishes for them both a happy future.

SHOT IN THE LEG.

Nick Green Wins Andrew Burbridge Near Pembroke.

A shooting affray occurred on Mr. Ben Bradshaw's place between Pembroke and Longview Sunday night. A negro named Andrew Burbridge was shot twice by Nick Green, another negro, in a row the origin of which is not known. Burbridge was hit once in the leg and once in the hip with pistol balls. His wounds are not serious, being only flesh wounds. Green skipped and is still at large. He is believed to have gone either to Clarksville or Evansville. Burbridge is speaking from start to finish and the report that his wounds were fatal, was an exaggerated one not based on facts.

"A Wild Goose Chase."

The above musical comedy holds the boards at the Opera House Monday night.

Hopkinsville theatergoers like good singing and acting in "A Wild Goose Chase" there are plenty of opportunities for such specialty work, none of which are lost. The comedy is sparkling from start to finish and in plot is unusually clever.

There are just the variety of characters in it to catch an audience and especially when they are as faithfully portrayed as last night.

The female impersonator, Chas. Hasty, as Willow O'Brien, makes a great hit and deserves a rank among the very best.

Minister "Quinine Jim."

Hon. James A. McKenize has arrived at his home, Oak Grove, this county. He left Trenton October 27, and came by way of New York. He is thin from an attack of fever, followed in fifty days. He is here on leave of absence and will remain until January. His doctors advised him to come home and recuperate. Mr. McKenize has parted with his flowing chin whiskers.

One thing that has brought him home at this time is the approaching marriage of his daughter, Miss Katie, to Mr. Lamar Monarch, of Owensboro, next month.

Three Counties Questioned.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 17.—The Democrats intend making a fight before the state returning board to have the counties of Fayette, Bourbon and Woodford, which were carried by McKinley, by majorities aggregating 1692, thrown out on account of free turn out petitions having been held in each. In Fayette there was also a school election, making three elections on the same day. This, they claim, is a plain violation of the law, and renders the election invalid in the counties in which the election was held.

Hogan Settle.

Miss Mattie Settle, daughter of Dr. H. C. Settle, and Mr. Russell Hogan, of Trenton, were members of a party of young people who went to Nashville yesterday to see "Robin Hood" last night.

News was received about noon that Miss Settle had become Mrs. Hogan, the ceremony taking place in the Marshall House parlor. The Rev. Bishop R. K. Hargrove officiating. They will return to Trenton to work. Mr. Hogan is a prominent farmer of Wood county and has been one of Hopkinsville's prettiest and most charming belles.

Mrs. Mollie Summers, who boards at W. S. Boales' boarding house near the post-office, was awakened Tuesday morning before day by a man in her room. The intruder gained access by climbing on to the porch by means of a ladder, and entering the room through a window. Mrs. Summers' screams aroused her sister, Miss Leola Lacy, in an adjoining room, and Mr. Boales' family on the lower floor. Mr. Boales with a pistol in hand rushed up stairs just as the would-be burglar escaped from the window and was disappearing in the moonlight. Mr. Boales opened fire on him and shot five times without effect. The burglar left his shoes, hat and coat. No arrest has yet been made. The supposition is that the intruder was a white man.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper effort, the effort—pleasant effort—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be recommended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
